

I believe that satellite radio subscriber's that pay for their services, should not be denied of the paid-programming that XM Radio provides to it's listners'.